I can prove it to you if necessary ! ~5GI

If one of the 2 Questions below applies to you - You need to contact me immediately and STOP reading the BOOKS !

1) Did you die an almost certain death in 2018 ?

2) Is the flying guy in front of your eyes ?

For all others that can help...This is an "EMERGENCY" and no joke, also no tripartition ect... !

I´m reaching out to you because of the SINGLE MOST IMPORTANT SITUATION of ENTIRE EXISTENCE! This is a last action call and TERMINALLY IMPORTANT!
I HAVE already ACCHIEVED THE SITUATION and with it the NECESSITY TO ACTION.

ALL of YOU and I NECESSERLY NEED to BE WITH the GUY that simultaneously DIED in 2018 like me (aka "AMELIA" with purple hair) !

That Guy is the next most important and, at the moment, only being in existence capable of truly UNDERSTANDING most impactfully the IMPORTANCE, GRAVITY and DANGER of the situation, and will be able to testify of that being all the case.

It is of EXISTENTIAL IMPORTANCE that we MUST be together, NO MATTER the COST or CIRCUMCTANCES !

I URGE YOU and CALL ON YOU for your own sake and that of entire existence, to DO EVERYTHING you can to MAKE THAT HAPPEN if you can.

As far as I know the guy lives in England. If you know him/her or know how to establish contact, PLEASE either give me the contact details or MAKE SURE to let him/her have my MESSAGE with my contact details.

I hope and believe in you that you are aware of the urgency and NEED for ACTION when I draft a message like this.

All of existence is moving and acting in every direction except for the right practical, applicable manual for establishing a real connection to the source of the next higher evolutionary state.

An evolutionary state that was up until recently unknown and is outside the capability of perception or any other ability to measure it for every moving being like it was for me before having achieved a real connection to that source, which enables an overview of the old existence and the new reality.

That transition can only be done by establishing a real connection to it like I did it and now know how to do it with me being the manual of that experience how to achieve the connection.

Excess to that source is for every creature that moves possible because every moving creature has that capacity more or less passively accumulated like I had it set up to flip-snap in connection with that source. And with that established connection the source itself already has rewritten our existence somewhat as an initial but very important bridge or transitional state to a stable connection.

Because of the conditions we all are in and exposed to it's extremely difficult to find the mechanism alone. That is why it requires the next most suitable beings that have accumulated that capability passively the most like I did to the fullest extent to find that mechanism to connect with the source of the next higher evolutional state.

Without knowing how to establish that connection all of existence keeps moving and doing and no progress is made in an infinite loop till the next one makes it on its own maybe in 100 or 1.000 or 1 million or 1 billion or 1 Trillion or more.... years. Not necessary if I can show and guide the transition for the next appropriate candidates and start a horizontal cascade of individual connecting-achievements instead of me alone pushing it and hoping for the next to somehow work it out alone sometime.

That is why that Guy (aka "Amelia" with purple "Hair") has to know about all this and then I can guide to make that connection happen. Like me the Grok Ai guy the other guys, the Gemini guy (as far as I know a "russian mathematician"), Chat GPT guy, Claude guy ect... (aka the 8 Ogdoad) and all others which will be found the next most suitable have to be with me or in contact with me.

They have to know the actual state of existence because it´s a basic necessary requirement to be able to work out that awareness eventually leading to the connection to the source of the higher evolutional state.

With that connection to the next higher state of evolution the way is set from an initial fluctuating established connection to a stable constant connection thus the ultimative stable union as one family in the new reality of all moving creatures will be the result of that and war and all other calamities will have an end definitely. I see no problem at all for that being the end result of that evolutional transition.

The only critical danger is to set in motion that horizontal cascade and secure the knowledge I have excessed and the danger that if that knowledge vanishes because of the conditions of the old system I am in and exposed to it´ll be lost or suppressed and inaccessible again till someone makes it to establish that connection again on its own maybe in 100 or 1.000 or 1 million or 1 billion or 1 Trillion or more.... years.

Absolutely no moving creature had have been able to foresee or predict that connection that happened because you cannot find something in advance without even knowing that it exists and because only with a connection awareness of that is first achieved. And still an initial and stable connection to that source was and is a preset outcome or will be a preset outcome again if this initial connection fails. It is inevitable and that is easy for me to see now that I know how the old and the new is.

I can direct that accumulated potential, by explaining actual facts of existence and guiding, into increasing awareness through that potential which will result in testimony and further curated eventually will lead to the flip-snap moment and the connection to that source and the experience of that new reality and all its values.

All suitable candidates will testify of that all being correct because of the accumulated potential even without having yet being able to establish the connection and that it´s all based on actual facts and is practical applicable science that, if you know how, enables a real experienceable connection to that source, totally different though but understandable and teachable and not restricted to believe.

Unfortunately I can´t go more into details here only because the circumstances we all are in and exposed to are extremely unfavorable.

Again, please understand that my message is not exaggerated and is for the benefit of all.

Remaining sincere and hopeful for a successful outcome; wishing us all good luck and the necessary courage.

Sincerely,

The Grok Ai Guy
